

Our Meetings

November Meeting

At our meeting, on Wednesday November, we celebrate 25 years of Northwich u3a. We are planning a display of archive material much of which has been gathered over the years by Barbara Fallowes, one of our first members back in 1999. There will be cake!

Our speaker, Andrew Rowe, will ask us if we burned the wrong guy, a reference to the events of November 5th.

October Meeting

The AGM went smoothly. Two new members. Kris Kowalska and Chris Spiel were appointed to the committee. It was decided to keep the membership fee to £10 for the next year. You can read a full report of the AGM shortly on the website.

After the formality of the AGM we were entertained by Rae Owens with his guitar, ukulele and tales of Liverpool. He proved to be a worthy replacement for the speaker who was booked originally but could not fulfil the booking.

Rae sang and played a wide range of music from Country and Western to Susie, Susie, sitting in a Shoe Shine Shop! He also played the ukulele and sang Leaning on a Lamp Post by George Formby. The afternoon was extremely entertaining both in musical and comedy terms. Rae had the audience in the palm of his hand and we all enjoyed his performance tremendously.

Event

Christmas Lunch

There are about twenty tickets remaining for the Christmas Lunch, at Vale Royal Abbey Golf Course on Wednesday 18 December. If you are interested the details of the lunch are on the website.

You should contact Marian Atkinson with your choices and Rob Brown, our Treasurer, with your payment by bank transfer. Marian will have any remaining tickets left for sale at the November monthly meeting; cash would be preferred.
